

New Priorities in Regional Programs of European Funds in Poland 2026

Warsaw, January 2026

European Funds for Łódzkie

Priority:

13. European Funds for Technological Security in Łódzkie

Budget:

20 774 095 EUR

Types of projects:

- Manufacturing investments in enterprises in the area of technologies, products or processes relevant to defense capabilities or resilience, with the possibility of covering dual-use technologies;
- Research and development projects of enterprises (TRL 4-9), carried out independently or in cooperation with research organizations;
- Creation or development of R+D infrastructure related to technologies relevant to defense capabilities or dual-use technologies;
- Commercialization of R+D results, including accompanying investments (infrastructure, intangible assets);
- Activities for the internationalization or integration of companies into European supply chains;
- Development of an innovative environment supporting defense-related technologies and products or dual-use technologies (including consulting, training, animation of R+D cooperation).

European Funds for Śląskie

Priority:

XV European funds to increase the potential of the defense industry

Budget:

15 000 000 EUR

Types of projects:

- Production investments contributing to the increase of the production capacity of the plant and/or the introduction of a new product, service or process to the market (e.g. technologies and processes related to the production of ammunition, missiles; combat vehicles, artillery systems, soldier equipment; drones and anti-drone systems; air and missile defense systems; artificial intelligence and electronic warfare).
- Investments increasing the production potential of the company by building/increasing the cyber resilience of production processes in companies supplying products for the defense sector.
- In addition, improving the competences of people employed in enterprises.

European Funds for Podlaskie

Priority:

XIII Funds to support defense capabilities in industry

Budget:

34 049 379 EUR

Types of projects:

- Investments in dual-use technology.
- Research and development activities of enterprises (consisting in conducting their own R+D work or as part of commissioned research) aimed at the development of prototypes, innovative technologies in areas crucial for the security of the region, with priority treatment of dual-use technologies (both for defense and civilian purposes).
- Implementation of R+D results, i.e. investments to create/increase the production and service capacities of enterprises, investments in modern technologies, in order to produce products and services necessary for defense or dual-use technologies.
- Cybersecurity activities aimed at enterprises.

European Funds for Lubelskie

Priority:

XIV Defense industry (EFRR)

Budget:

30 000 000 EUR

Types of projects:

- Support for enterprises operating in the security and defense industry by co-financing projects related to production lines, technology purchase, production and services in the field of security and defense, including cybersecurity;
- Increasing the industrial and service capacity of enterprises to support dual-use products and services (e.g. entrepreneurs producing footwear, tyres, clothing, food or providing services, etc.).

European Funds for Podkarpackie

Priority:

11. Investments for security and defense

Budget:

75 800 000 EUR

Types of projects:

- Support for enterprises operating in the security and defense sector, including investments to develop production and service potential
- Supporting enterprises in the development of dual-use products and services
- Support for research and development (R+D) and testing activities in areas relevant to defense and security.
- Support for SMEs in the security and defense industry and SMEs operating on the market of dual-use solutions, through services provided by business environment institutions and clusters,
- Establishment of a certification and development center for unmanned systems - strategic project.

Core sp. z o.o

Poland Office

9/2 Flory Street

00-586 Warsaw - POLAND

Phone: +48 22 5863300

info@investmentsgroup.net

Italy Office

International Investments Group Italia S.r.l.

19 Andrea Solari Street

20144 Milan - ITALY

www.investmentsgroup.net